

Through A Glass Darkly

Friday July 12th 2024: 7.15pm – 10:15pm at the Hostry Norwich Cathedral, Weston Room

Norwich Centre Spiritual Exploration Unit

An evening of poetry and prose readings inspired by a commitment to the spiritual dimension in human experience.

Brian Thorne, co-founder of the Norwich Centre for Personal, Professional & Spiritual Development, will present and introduce a number of talented writers (some well-known, others unknown) who will speak about and read from their work. Contributors who have agreed to participate are:

Patrick Barkham

Ken Browne

Steven Foyster

Jim Green

Peter John Jarrold

Sarah Law

Penny Plowman

Kathryn Simmonds

Fiona Strodder

This is the 45th Anniversary Year of the founding of the Norwich Centre and this significant event denotes a new phase in the Centre's history with the appointment of Maggie Southworth as Centre Director. It signals too the intention of the Centre to relaunch its Diploma in Spiritual Accompaniment which will complement the Centre's flourishing array of counselling courses offered at Introductory, Certificate and Diploma levels.

Registration is required – by email, admin@norwichcentre.org or by phone, 01603 617709 – at which methods of payment will be outlined. Early registration is advised.

Cost: £15 (£10 concessions)

We hope to see you at this mile-stone event.

(Opportunity for conversation and refreshments will be provided during the interval.)
